State Geologist's Office,

SPRINGFIELD, ILLINOIS.

Febry 10th 1867

Dr Geo. Englmann

Dear Sir

Permit me to introduce to you my friend Dr O. Everett of Dixon Illinois, who is deeply interested in Natural Science, and desires to become acquainted with some of the active Naturalists of St Louis. Any attentions shown him will be gratefully remembered and cheerfully reciprocated by Your Obedient Servant

A. H. Worthen

Called with Dr Truesdale of Rockford and spoke of Major Powell (lost right arm) as an able Botanist of Bloomington Ill
